

The Studio

Mark Hall has established a full production studio specializing in the design, fabrication, and installation of art glass and specialty forged iron. Hallmark Glass is located in the picturesque Minnesota River Valley in the small town of Kasota. Mark's studio is appropriately found in the historic original blacksmith shop located in the middle of town.